

Join us for the biannual

ELECTED OFFICIALS' BREAKFAST

A DISCUSSION ABOUT SAFE ROUTES TO SCHOOL

Learn how you can promote pedestrian and bicycle safety for students traveling to and from school, and expand active transportation choices for all residents through Safe Routes to School programs.

Friday, September 19, 2014
 8:00 - 10:30 a.m.
 CalTrans Building
 Garcia Room
 4050 Taylor Street
 San Diego

Space is limited, please RSVP by September 17:
 Nina Ghatan
 858-609-7964 or nghatan@sdchip.org

Who Should Attend?

- Elected officials
- School board members
- Representatives of city, county, and tribal governments
- Planning agencies
- Anyone who has a role in safe routes to school policy development

DID YOU KNOW THAT IN 2009...

30 BILLION

Miles were driven taking kids to and from school

6.5 BILLION

Vehicle trips were made taking kids to and from school

10-14%

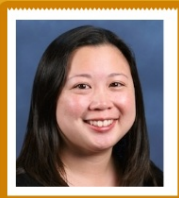

Of all traffic during morning commute time was taking kids to and from school

Keynote speaker
MARK FENTON

Nationally recognized author and advocate for active transportation.

Safe Routes to School National Partnership

MICHELLE LEIBERMAN

Circulate San Diego

BRIAN GAZE

City of Lemon Grove

GRAHAM MITCHELL

Panelists

